What can we say about Mrs. Peanut but she encouraged everyone of us from the old South 15th street neighborhood over the years when I use to run into her out at the mall as she walked she would stop me and ask about my mother and then remind me of her words that your past doesn't define your destiny that God has in-store then she would say I've been keeping up with you and I read the article that you had in this Burg,that was 2011 then she said boy your doing the thing 2016 you recieved the Martin Luther King Drum Major Service Award or I'll turn on my TV and see you on channel 20 fighting for the entire City and she told me she would just smile it amazed me how she was keeping up with me without me even knowing. We are Truly going to miss you but we know without a shadow of a doubt that you are resting in the arm's of Our Lord and Savior until that Great Getting Up Morning when we All shall be together again. “"Mom" as you were so affectionately known, came into my life when I was just a 14-year-old little girl, who was calling myself "Zack's girlfriend!" I'm not quite sure how you felt about me at first because I just wouldn't go away, but I do know that overtime you took me as your very own.

I will always remember that big, beautiful smile and the stories that you told because you always made us feel like we were part of the story. And I remember watching you getting dressed for work, so tall and statuesque in your uniform...always so crisp and clean! Those, and so many other memories will live in my heart forever.

And now, here we are, 45 years later and the last time I saw you you embraced and loved me just like you did when I was a 14 year old little girl. You told me how proud you were of me and my ministry, and I'll never forget that!

I'm so glad that you have gained your heavenly wings and have joined so many others that have gone on before us. I know that our gracious Father was waiting for you at the gate with a warm welcome of..."Well done thy good and faithful servant!"

Rest peacefully "Mom Chadwick", and I'll see you later! Love you always!💜💜💜

“ To Glenda and Family,

From my childhood to adulthood, I knew Mrs. Waverly as Ms. Peanut. She was such a Pleasant and Lovely Lady. During the times when Ms. Peanut and I would encounter one another at the East Mall while she was doing her daily walk(s) or just sitting with friends (on the bench outside of Macy's), she always took the time to greet me with her Big Beautiful Smile(s), Warm Hug(s) and Sincere "Hello, how are you doing"? I will truly treasure those chance encounters and my fond memories of Ms. Peanut at the East Mall. Like many, I Thank God for giving me an opportunity to know such a Beautiful Lady. My Heartfelt Condolences to all of Ms. Peanut's Love Ones. May God Comfort and Keep Each of You During This Time of Celebration for a Life Well Lived!
