May 5, 1944 - October 21, 2017

Wendell was born Friday, May 5, 1944, in Dillon, South Carolina, son of the late Robert Foxworth and the late Sadie McCormick.

Wendell received his formal education in Dillon, SC. His employment path included Fort Bragg, NC, Army Base, Crowe's Bar, Harrisburg, PA, where he worked alongside his brother-in-law Thomas Crosson, child daycare where he showed compassion and concern for the children and retirement as a supervisor from Harrisburg Area Community College.

In 1989, Wendell united in holy matrimony with the former Rosa Crosson. An avid Pittsburgh Steelers fan, Wendell also enjoyed gardening, cooking, watching "old westerns," following the ups-and-downs of the stock market, spending time with his family, especially his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and traveling with his wife Rosa to numerous destinations--his dream was to return to Hawaii.
