

Willie D. Stevenson Jr.

February 26, 1960 - July 22, 2024

Willie D. Stevenson Jr., son of the late Willie D. Stevenson Sr. and the late Lula Mae (Carden) Stevenson, was born Friday, February 26, 1960, in Harrisburg, PA.

Known as Casey by family and friends, Willie graduated from Harrisburg High and retired from Stroehmann Bakery. He was united in Christian fellowship with Bridge of Faith Church where he served with the Men's Ministry.

Among his favorite pastimes were making DVD's and CD's for family and friends, making fragrant oils, feasting on crabs, dining out at Red Lobster, jokes and avidly following his favorite football team, the Raiders. Willie loved his church, his dogs, purchasing and ordering sweatsuits which he loved to wear along with "bunches-of-stuff" some which still have price tags. However, and most importantly, Willie loved, loved and loved his wife, his sons, his family and, especially, his sister Jean.

On Monday, July 22, 2024, at sixty-four years of age, Willie D. Stevenson Jr. departed this life joining in eternal life his parents; his beloved wife, Louise Stevenson; his brother, Gregory Carden Sr.; and his nephew, Tyron Stevenson.

Willie is survived by his sister, Mary Jean Stevenson; sons, Charles Willis and Robert Willis; daughter, Tracey Weaver; daughter-in-law, Latoya Willis; grandchildren, Chimere Willis, Tory Lewis, Zaire Willis (Dominique), Darell Porter, Diante Willis, Dominique Brown, Jessica Holman, Kian Wright, Alexius McKune, Jachai McKune, Alex Edwards and Aigner Edwards; his great-grandchildren, Corday Willis, Ricky Carroll Jr., Nylan Holman, Chymere Willis, Kelly Willis, Kaion Willis, Zander Strange, Makoa Willis and Darell Porter Jr.; great-great-grandchildren, Caiden Willis, Hassan Simmons; niece, Nicole Stevenson; nephews, Henry (Tony) Stevenson and Gregory Carden Jr.; great-nieces, Day`Jha Blades and Destani Blades; along with a host of cousins and friends.
