

Willie Beatrice Victor

May 21, 1930 - February 18, 2023

Willie Beatrice Victor, daughter of the late Ernest Williams and the late Ida (Byrd) Williams, was born Wednesday, May 21, 1930, in Macon, Georgia. Having been born in Georgia, the residents and staff at the Middletown Home, Middletown, PA, where she resided called her “Georgia Peach.” She was also affectionately known as “Ma, Cooley Mae, Cootney, Beechnut and Granny.”

Beatrice retired from Partners in Care Nursing in New York City. She was fun-loving, full of laughter and loved to sing and dance. Beatrice was “Madea” long before Tyler Perry introduced “Madea” through his plays and movies. She was no-nonsense and would jack you in a minute. She didn’t mind giving you her, “Oh Please” and “You Sexy” comments. Collard greens, okra, cornbread and hot sauce were among her favorite delicacies.

At the blessed age of ninety-two, Beatrice passed from labor to reward on Saturday, February 18, 2023. Her legacy will be cherished by her son, Benny Irish Lester Sr. of Macon, GA; son-in-law, Charles Guider; goddaughter, Ina Canales; godson, George Tyson of Harrisburg, PA; eleven grandchildren, twenty-two great-grandchildren, eight great-great-grandchildren, other family members and friends.
