“ it's been 3 years, and I honestly can say this is still hard to deal with and process. Since you've been gone earthside I had the great granddaughter you wanted, her name is Solana Shyne; Solana means sun and Shyne a reflection of light, her nickname was “sunshine” before I had a name for her. I often think about how spoiled she would have been in your care and how motherhood is the hardest yet rewarding gig that I've ever had to experience. But I'm equipped for the job thanks to you. I wish I could've experienced you and her interacting you two would make me throw up.. lol I just wanted to let you know like I do everyday that I love you.

“one thing my gram taught me was how to pray, she'd always say “well satty you know how to pray” and i knew i did but her prayers were more powerful, God always heard her quicker. my gram always always prayed, no matter what. my favorite memories i'll forever cherish is cooking with her, eating everything we were not supposed to, and all the times she prayed OVER me while i slept. I wouldn't be half the woman I am today without my Gramma's guidance. I miss you so so so so much 🧡🧡🧡🧡🧡🧡🧡 I'm gonna get this degree for you because that's what you would have wanted! Kiss everyone for me, sugarfoot.
