

Yadaya Khadejah Queen

June 13, 2000 - June 12, 2011

Yadaya Khadejah Queen

“Death is the Gateway to Eternal Life”

Yadaya Khadejah Queen, daughter of Dorothy Queen and sister to Yaneshia and Paishe Gaston, was chosen by the Master Gardener for His heavenly bouquet on Sunday, June 12, 2011.

She was born in Harrisburg on Tuesday, June 13, 2000.

Upon maturing into the acceptance of Jesus Christ as her Personal Savior, Yadaya united with Miracle Life Church. She completed preschool and was a student at Melrose Elementary. She participated in the Special Olympics Race and loved watching “Nickelodeon,” listening to music, sucking her finger and “chillin” with her mom.

Yadaya was predeceased by uncle, John S. R. Queen Jr.; grandfather, John S. Queen Sr.; great grandparents, James and Dorothy Queen; and great grandfather, Ballward Anthony.

Memories of Yadaya’s brief eleven years will forever be lovingly cherished by her mother, sister and brother; her grandmother, Ida Lansanah; step grandfather, John Mobley, all of Harrisburg; uncles, Stevie Queen of California, Sharif Queen, Danny Lansanah and Brandon Lynch; an aunt, Aisha Queen, all of Harrisburg; as well as a host of cousins, other family members and friends who will all miss Yadaya's physical presence, but are thankful for the blessed assurance of knowing Yadaya is joyously in the Divine Presence of her Heavenly Father.

Submitted with Sorrow and Love, The Family

Praise God! Through Yadaya's Donation of Organs,
Numerous Persons Were Given a Second Chance At Life.

Cemetery Details

William Howard Day Cemetery

Lincoln and Carlisle Streets
Steelton, PA 17113

Tribute Wall

TB

“ Yadaya - you will be missed at Melrose, Sweetie. Ms. Tami and others at Melrose Elementary

Tami Beckenbaugh - June 16, 2011 at 08:25 PM