“ Zaida was such a beautiful person and had a beautiful spirit to match. May God bless her family while going through this difficult time. We will be praying for you all, we stand with you and we will be there for all. Sorrowfully submitted by the St. Paul AME Church family and Rev. R. Mim Roberts Harvey, Pastor

“ One of the Sweetest Souls I have Ever had to most Delightful Privilege and experience to know !
I have the fondest of memories from mine and my sibling’s childhood, from spending time at her house and sitting for long periods of time just talking to her and sometimes along with her husband, from getting my hair done, to eating, to just playing with her boys. I remember feeling like I had known her forever, it always felt like I was getting to know a new family member. Personally for me she gave me a Grandmother feel, although she wasn’t much older than my Mom. I guess this was coming from a kid that never grew up with any grandparents and so desired some, and she so fit the bill, perfectly !!!! How I had always desired that she would have stayed a part of our lives forever. It was nice to sit around as a kid and just have a grown-up listen to whatever you had to say, and pour into you . I will Forever be grateful to her for that, and will miss her as long as I live. ❤️🙏

“ I have fond memories of Zaida. She was like a second mom to me and my siblings. Many a times she would watch over us and cook and feed us. We spent as much time in her apartment as we did in our own. She was more than just a neighbor she was family. She was a very caring person with a heart of gold and patience to match. She was a special soul and will be missed.

“ Some of the memories I remember as a child are of Zaida taking care of me and my sisters, buying us Christmas gifts and cooking for us and oh my her Chihuahua who was mean. I also remember her doing my hair and making me look beautiful. I loved spending time with her taking care of Randy and fighting with Rolando. She was one great special lady she will be missed forever.

“ My deep heart felt condolences to you Ramon and the rest of your family. To have known your mom was a privilege, she was such a blessing to me. She always took such good care of Eric how she loved him was so sweet to see. I never had a care in the world when he was with her. She was always good, sweet, helpful and kind to me. When my sisters and I were young we loved spending hours with her once we could get past Whitey that two legged chihuahua. To know her was to love her. I will always remember her. May God fill you and the family with peace in knowing she is resting. I pray you and the family find peace and comfort in knowing she loved all of her family members and all those who had been part of her life for a season and time. Blessings, Anna & Family
